THE UK'S AWARD-WINNING MAGAZINE ABOUT ITALY

The Watermill at Posara, where creativity meets la dolce vita.

Hidden in the sun-dappled hills of northern Tuscany, The Watermill at Posara is more than just a retreat: it's a creative pilgrimage. For more than three decades, this 17th-century mill has welcomed painters, writers, knitters and culture-seekers from around the world to slow down, soak in the beauty of rural Italy and unlock their creative spirit.

Known for its idyllic riverside setting, sustainable hospitality and immersive experiences, the venue continues to evolve by welcoming new tutors and disciplines, with courses that build on the philosophy of inspiration, creativity and community.

Check out the inspiring line-up of new courses for 2026!
