

MAY

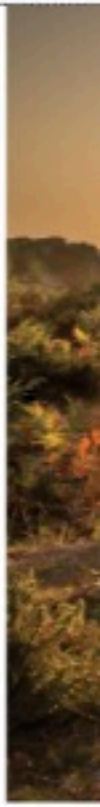
New routes to...
Samos, Greece

From May to October, Jet2 will fly from London Stansted and Manchester to Samos, making this lush island more accessible than ever. Around 43km long, the north and western regions attract walkers keen to wander the pine forests, while Samos' varied beaches range from pebble bays with a single taverna to long stretches of sand or shingle with watersports and sunbeds.
STAY The adults-only (16+) Casa Cook Samos, with direct beach access and only a 10-minute drive from the airport, costs from £201pn; casacook.com.

JUNE

Shoulder-season sun in...
Tuscany, Italy

Whether you're in it for the food, the views, the wine or the sunshine, the romance of this region is hard to resist. Ride a classic Vespa through sun-drenched hills, explore the vibrant markets of Fivizzano and bask in the beauty of Cinque Terre.
STAY The Watermill at Posara offers week-long creative holidays in painting, cooking and more. From £2,320pp, including all costs; watermill.net.



JULY

Get sporty in...
Glasgow

The Scottish city will pulse with energy in 2026 – and the biggest reason to visit this year is the Commonwealth Games (23 July-2 August). Beyond the arenas, the excitement will ripple through every corner of the city. And don't leave without stopping by Barbie: The Exhibition (opening June 2026) at Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum, with over 250 objects including 150 dolls, including a rare first edition from 1959.
STAY The newly opened Wellington Glasgow by Adina in the city centre costs from £99pn; adinahotels.com.

AUGUST

Have a coolcation in...
Norway

Avoid the summer heat and opt for a 'coolcation'. The West Norwegian fjords are a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the biggest attraction in Scandinavia. And what better way to see them than by sea? You'll visit destinations like Stavanger, where culture meets coastal charm, before navigating through the serene waters of Innvikfjorden and Nordfjord. Unwind against a backdrop of incredible scenery.
STAY A seven-night cruise to the Norwegian fjords on board the Iona costs from £729pp; pocruises.com.

Bavarian fun in...
Munich, Germany

If Munich's beer culture is top of your wish list, visit during the famous Oktoberfest (19 September-4 October), which attracts over six million visitors every year. As well as quenching your thirst, you can enjoy rides, games, stalls and hearty traditional Bavarian cuisine. Don't forget that Munich is a modern, dynamic city too. Head to the Kunstareal museum quarter, where you can see works from Andy Warhol and Damien Hirst at Museum Brandhorst, and visit Germany's biggest modern-art museum, the Pinakothek der Moderne.
STAY The stylish Hotel Motel One München-Sendlinger Tor, costs from £100pn; motel-one.com.

SEPTEMBER

20% OFF SWEATY BETTY

10% OFF RITUALS

The TRUTH about SKINNY JABS AND YOUR SEX LIFE

DOCTOR HELEN REPORTS

Mrs Hinch's NEW YEAR CLEAR-OUT

TOP TIPS AND TRICKS

Woman

32 EXTRA PAGES

Ruth 'IT'S TIME TO MOVE ON'

EASY MEALS under 500 cals!

Why can't YOU LOSE WEIGHT?

TAKE OUR TEST!

12 pages of REAL LIFE

Battle over Diana

BROTHERS AT WAR

Harry's new tell-all will destroy bond for good

woman SOS STAMP OUT SCAMS

One phone call cost me £5,500

HOW I CHANGED MY LIFE

From debt to MILLIONAIRE

PLUS I watched mums snort cocaine... AT A KIDS' PARTY